Terms & conditions – The Dough Gurus

We warmly welcome you to The Dough Gurus. By making a reservation, these terms and conditions come into effect. We kindly ask you to read them carefully.

1. The Dough Gurus

The Dough Gurus is based in Maastricht and specializes in providing pizza workshops. These terms and conditions apply to all quotations, agreements, and services relating to the sale and execution of pizza workshop services by The Dough Gurus.

By participating in a workshop, the participant agrees to these terms and conditions.

2. Liability

Participation in the workshop is entirely at your own risk. The Dough Gurus is not liable for any injury, damage, or loss that occurs during or as a result of participation in the workshop.

The Dough Gurus is not liable for consequential damages.

3. Allergen Information and Dietary Requirements

Our workshop environment is not gluten-free and cannot be made completely gluten-free for operational reasons. Although we exercise the utmost care, cross-contamination with gluten or other allergens cannot be excluded. Upon request, and if communicated in time, a gluten-free pizza can be provided; however, this does not guarantee a fully allergen-free product.

Participants with specific allergies, intolerances, or dietary requirements must communicate this in writing at least 1 week before the workshop via the email address below. Without timely and clear notification, we cannot offer any guarantees regarding ingredient adjustments, allergen avoidance, or alternative products.

Although we do our best to accommodate allergies and dietary wishes, it remains the participant's own responsibility to assess whether participation is safe given the ingredients, preparation methods, and potential cross-contamination. The organizer is not liable for health complaints or damages resulting from incomplete, missing, or late information from the participant, or from unavoidable cross-contamination in the workshop environment.

4. Ingredients

Standard pizza toppings are provided during the workshops. These can be adjusted or supplemented upon request. If the requested ingredients are more expensive than standard ingredients, additional charges will apply.

Requests for adjustments or additions must be submitted in writing at least 1 week before the workshop via the email address below.
